Special Religious Education Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time in class for faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective at the choice of parents.

To support parents and carers in their choice of whether to have their children attend Special Religious Education (SRE) lessons, please see the Corowa High School website at corowa-h.schools.nsw.gov.au.

Below is a list of denominations and religious organisations that support the delivery of SRE at Corowa High School.

Anglican Diocese of Riverina
Australian Christian Churches
Baptist Union of NSW
Catholic Diocese of Wagga Wagga
Lutheran Church of Australia
Presbyterian Church of Australia
Uniting Church in Australia

A parent or carer may at any time notify the school in writing that they wish to change their decision. Students will continue the same arrangement as the previous year, unless a parent or carer has requested a change in writing.

Students not attending SRE are given supervised alternative meaningful activities such as reading, private study or completing homework.

Please return the signed form below to the front office.
